DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is responsive to Amendment filed 09/11/2006.
2. Claims 1-18 are pending in this application. This Office Action is made final.

Claim Objections

3. Claim 10 is objected to because of the following informalities:

Re claim 10, this claim should depend on claim 9 instead depend on itself.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

5. Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 1-18 cite a method, program, computer readable medium, and a system for generating a sequence of random number according to a mathematical algorithm which is considered as an abstract idea. In order for claims to be statutory, claims must be either include a practical application at useful or a concrete, useful, and tangible result.

However, claims 1-18 directed to a method, program, computer readable medium, and a system which solely solves a mathematical expression without regard for the particular practical application of that mathematical expression as generating a sequence of random number based on a covariance matrix. They also fail to produce a tangible result. In addition, claims 5-6 are directed to purely software per se., which lacking storage on a medium to enable any underlying functionality to occur. Also, claims 9-12 raise an issue of preemption, which attempt to claim every substantial practical application of an abstract idea. Therefore, claims 1-18 are directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-18 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-2, 5-6, 16, 18, 27-30, 37-38, and 41-42 of copending Application No. 10/289,827. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because: claim(s) 1-2, 5-6, 16, 18, 27-

Art Unit: 2193

30, 37-38, and 41-42 of Application No. 10/289,827 contain(s) every element of claim(s) 1-18 respectively of the instant application and thus anticipate the claim(s) of the instant application. Claim(s) of the instant application therefore is/are not patentably distinct from the earlier patent claim(s) and as such is/are unpatentable over obvious-type double patenting. A later patent/application claim is not patentably distinct from an earlier claim if the later claim is anticipated by the earlier claim.

"A later patent claim is not patentably distinct from an earlier patent claim if the later claim is obvious over, or anticipated by, the earlier claim. In re Lonqi, 759 F.2d at 896, 225 USPQ at 651 (affirming a holding of obviousness-type double patenting because the claims at issue were obvious over claims in four prior art patents); In re Berg, 140 F.3d at 1437, 46 USPQ2d at 1233 (Fed. Cir. 1998) (affirming a holding of obviousness-type double patenting where a patent application claim to a genus is anticipated by a patent claim to a species within that genus). " ELI LILLY AND COMPANY v BARR LABORATORIES, INC., United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, ON PETITION FOR REHEARING EN BANC (DECIDED: May 30, 2001).

"Claim 12 and Claim 13 are generic to the species of invention covered by claim 3 of the patent. Thus, the generic invention is "anticipated" by the species of the patented invention. Cf., Titanium Metals Corp.. v. Banner, 778 F.2d 775, 227 USPQ 773 (Fed. Cir. 1985) (holding that an earlier species disclosure in the prior art defeats any generic claim) 4 . This court's predecessor has held that, without a terminal disclaimer, the species claims preclude issuance of the generic application. In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 944, 214 USPQ 761, 767 (CCPA 1982); Schneller , 397 F.2d at 354. Accordingly, absent a terminal disclaimer, claims 12 and 13 were properly rejected under the doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting." (In re Goodman (CA FC) 29 USPQ2d 2010 (12/3/1993).

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed 09/11/2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

a. The applicant argues in pages 14-15 for claims rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 that the limitation "outputting the at least one sequence of random numbers of 1/f noise" would constitute the concrete, useful, and tangible result as required under 35 U.S.C. 101.

The examiner respectfully submits that the step of generating the random numbers of 1/f noise would not constitute the tangible result as alleged by the applicant because the result is generated, but does not physical stored for used in the real application. In order for claims to be statutory, the physical or real-world application utilizing the tangible result must exist in the claims.

- b. The applicant requests in page 18 for pointing out which application was “earlier-filed” for purposes of the request for a terminal disclaimer.

The examiner respectfully submits that both applications are in pending with outstanding rejection.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
